- “Ariella Strings is fantastic! The talented team around Cheryl and John played for two of our company events and we couldn’t have asked for more. From clear and effective communication to a huge list of music options, it was a pleasure working with Ariella Strings. After both events, delegates and company staff were impressed with the music performance. We will book Ariella Strings again!”

Sophie Zillman European Director Zija International

- “Ariella Strings were the perfect special touch to our day. Having them play as I walked down the aisle was stunning and so effective. They were the ideal backdrop to the day. If you are looking for live music, Ariella Strings come highly recommended. I must also mention how easy to deal with both Cheryl and John were leading up to the big day.”

Mr and Mrs Michael Ferrada Dodmoor House 21st April 2017

- “We first came across Ariella Strings from searching the internet when looking for a string quartet for our son's wedding. We were very impressed by their prompt, friendly and helpful response. Their professionalism meant we were in good hands through every step of the planning. They even made the personal touch of taking time to meet with us to discuss our choices. Music has been a big part of our son and his wife's lives and Ariella Stings brought a magical touch to their wedding reaching all generations of our family and friends, who had travelled from different parts of the world to be there. The feedback from them has been amazing. It was far above our hopes and dreams for this most important occasions of our lives and words cannot express how grateful we are for the joy Ariella Strings brought to this most perfect day. We recommend them without hesitation. With our grateful thanks and very best wishes Derek and Dawn Ansbro”

- “Cannot recommend Ariella Strings highly enough. Warm, professional and helpful throughout the planning process and then on the day itself their ability to seamlessly move from the traditional/classical to modern/contemporary really added the polish to our amazing day. The “juke box” style service they offer was highly original and generated a lot of interest and interaction from our guests during our drinks reception”

- “We worked with Cheryl and John of Ariella Strings at our church wedding and reception at Luton Hoo. We chose them for their sterling reputation, known musical passion and skill, and because they are widely known to be of the utmost professionalism and diligence in nature, and exceptionally easy to work with. We discussed our ideas with John and Cheryl, who created a tailored, interactive musical experience (wedding, reception, dinner) that really helped tell the tale of my wife's and my journey together. They are incredibly talented, creative and an absolute pleasure to work with, and spend hours making sure the music is "just so". Our wedding included a very diverse mix of attendees, numerous vendors across a large landscape, multiple moving parties, and Cheryl and John easily navigated across vendors and locations with aplomb. They were exceptionally well-prepared, focused, partnered with our other vendors, and took particular care of personal and cultural sensitivities, blending into the wedding party seamlessly. Should anyone be considering musicians of the highest order at Luton Hoo or other, then I cannot thank them highly enough. We've had so many comments on them both and they truly made our wedding special.

- “Ariella Strings performed for us at our wedding at Stowe House in July 2016, and became a central part of our afternoon. While we were searching for bands, some groups we spoke to were very prescriptive with the set they were willing to play, whereas Ariella Strings were hugely accommodating in letting us choose a list of songs that we wanted from their extensive playlist - even stretching to their brilliant Jukebox Live idea, where guests can request tracks from the list we'd provided. This was a huge hit with our guests (to the point they didn't want to come in for food!). John and Cheryl were absolutely lovely to deal with while preparing for our big day, and excellent musicians too. We were having our photos taken for the majority of time Ariella Strings were playing, but it was clear all of our guests thoroughly enjoyed it - especially my three-year-old niece who requested "Let It Go" as often as she could! Four months on from the wedding, our friends still mention Ariella Strings whenever we reminisce about the day. We're hoping one of them takes our recommendation soon, so we can enjoy them fully without being bothered by a photographer!”

- “My wife and I had Ariella strings play at our wedding at Horwood House in September this year. They were fantastic. They spent time advising and guiding us prior to the event to select the songs we'd have to play during the day. We were very pleased with what was delivered by Ariella Strings and would recommend them to others. It really added a touch of class and ambience to our special day.”

I still get goosebumps remembering the music at the ceremony and the mood created during the drinks reception was relaxed and so personal to what we wanted. A friendly and very helpful lot. The music provided will always be a big part of the beautiful memories that day. Thankyou again xxx

- Cheryl and John, Jeff and I would like to say a huge thank you for your part in our wedding ceremony. From the moment we started planning our wedding, I knew exactly what music I wanted to walk down the aisle to; Pachelbel's Canon. I had imagined my walk down the aisle over and over again and on the day you truly made my dreams come true. Hearing the introductory notes before I started walking gave me spine chills, your talent is breath-taking. Other memories include when we signed the register and I could hear 'Its all about you' by Mcfly' being played. It really made me smile. We would also like to thank you both for learning a new song at such short notice so we could walk back down the aisle together to Jeff's favourite song ' Don't stop believing'. It was a lovely upbeat piece of music and is another great memory. I should also mention that many of our guests also commented on how talented you both were, and how much they enjoyed your music. One guest described you as 'the best he has ever heard'. We really can't thank you enough, best wishes,

- Dear John, Cheryl and your fellow musicians,

Thank you for such a brilliant performance our wedding – our wedding guests loved it. The service was thoroughly professional and included a phone call from John to ask which tunes we would particularly like to have at our wedding. There were so many classical pieces and modern-day tunes to choose from.

To have such wonderful musicians at our wedding really enhanced the occasion and atmosphere.

A massive thank you to you all!

- We were fortunate enough to have the wonderfully talented Ariella Strings play at our daughter's wedding in March. They were fantastic and sounded wonderful playing as our daughter walked down the aisle. They also played throughout the drinks reception providing fabulous back ground music whilst our guests mingled and chatted. Many of our guests told us they were a joy to listen to. From the first moment we first met Cheryl and John we knew they were the right people to play for us. They were always professional and listened to what our requirements were and ensured on the day we got exactly what we wanted. Thank you Ariella Strings for being an integral part of our daughters magical wedding day.

- "We are really delighted that we chose Ariella Strings to perform at our wedding. Having a live string trio perform the music for our ceremony and reception was a very special touch that really enhanced the atmosphere on our wedding day. Ariella were really efficient and professional in the run-up, sorting the contracts and helping us to select the music and plan the day. The performance itself was excellent and we and our guests really enjoyed it. We selected classical music for the ceremony, and some string arrangements of modern pieces for a more informal fun feel at the reception. We would certainly recommend Ariella to anyone planning a future wedding or special event in the area." Louise and Tim - Wedding Ceremony & Drinks Reception Woburn Abbey Sculpture Gallery November 2015

I have no hesitation in giving Ariella Strings my highest recommendation having used them at two family funerals. They interpreted our music requests perfectly whilst fitting in well with both the sombre mood of the service and the more up-beat wake.

- Hi Cheryl
I just wanted to get in touch and let you know how grateful we are for you and your teams' excellent performance at our IMserv Christmas Party. We have received a lot of feedback on what a great night people had and how much they enjoyed the String Trio.
I personally was extremely thankful of your expertise and helpfulness both leading up to and during the event. It helped no end knowing that I need not worry about that part of the entertainment as I was confident you had everything under control. And as for your performance on the night, well, it was second to none. The only problem now is I feel all future events will not be the same if Ariella Strings are not there in some form or another. Rest assured that if in future I have any excuse to hire you and your team again then I will not hesitate to do so. We wish you and everyone at Ariella strings a Merry Christmas and a well-deserved prosperous new year.
Kind Regards

Thank you for being so patient with us and so supportive and making adjustments right up until a few days before the Wedding. Hearing you play while my cousin sang was out of this world and our guests are still talking about it now! It will be cherished family memory forever. You had guests in tears with my entrance song and everyone smiling to our exit song- thank you for creating that piece for us! We cannot thank and recommend you enough! Thank you again,

I knew I had to have you involved in my wedding somehow, whenever that day would be! So when it came to us setting our date, you were among the very first bookings we made, along with our venue.

Cheryl and John, you have been an absolute dream to work with. Your personalities and love for what you do shines through in every song you play. - I just wanted you to pass on my thanks to your wonderful string trio... they were absolutely superb all afternoon. Not sure they've played a gig where the diners joined in with the choruses! But they played on with aplomb even coming up with an impromptu version of Happy Birthday. I hoped they enjoyed it as much as we did – I'm pretty sure several people complemented them on the day and I know that I got lots of comments on how beautifully they played.

Gypsies, Tramps and Thieves was excellent and please thank them for waiting whilst I rounded up Anita and her sisters/nieces etc.

Thanks to you for organising it and I have passed your company information onto several friends.

- “A big thank you for the Q'tet's excellent performance on Saturday. I know from what many people said to me afterwards that your music was really liked and appreciated, and I too was able to turn off from thinking about the party and just enjoy listening. It really helped to make the day unforgettable.”

- I just wanted to write to say thank you for playing at our wedding at Horwood House on 6th October. The music before, during and after the ceremony was beautifully played, and our guests all commented on how nice it was. We really enjoyed the mix of contemporary and classical pieces. It certainly added a touch of class to the day. I wish we had heard more, but had to go and get our photos taken!

- “We were so pleased that we chose to book Ariella Strings for our recent wedding at Fanhams Hall. From start to finish it was a really professional arrangement and they helped us so much with the choice of music. As well as their professionalism, it was also a lot of fun to work with them. They certainly added an extra bit of class to our day and delivered exactly what we wanted. Thank you Ariella Strings!”

- Dear Cheryl
I'm just back off my honeymoon, and wanted to take a few minutes to email and say thank you for performing at our wedding. I can't even begin to describe how happy we were. The only downside was I only got to hear a few songs! The Darkness song was amazing, I kept trying to slow Kris down so I could hear more of it! Everyone said how amazing it was to have the songs we had, and people are saying it made the service even more fantastic. I got to head bang to Queen whilst signing the register, who can say that about their wedding day!?! It set the tone for a fantastic day, and I'm so happy with how it went!

My only regret is that I was so overwhelmed I didn't get to meet you and thank you in person, so thank you all so much! Thank you!
